A Loving Home Away From Home

Beit Yeladim
at San Diego Jewish Academy

Beit Yeladim, Children's House, is a fully licensed day care center in Carmel Valley. Serving children ages six weeks to two years, it is a home away from home, rich in Jewish values and traditions.

At Beit Yeladim, babies, wobblers and toddlers are safe, nurtured and loved. Our experienced faculty provide activities that encourage the social, emotional, intellectual, and physical development of young children.

Under the supervision of Thany Hanesana, former teacher of the Early Childhood Education Center at University of California, San Diego, children are introduced to the skills needed to succeed in school and in life.

Caring for Babies

Beit Yeladim provides a nurturing, creative world for babies. Our infant teachers work in teams so there is always someone to hold, feed, change or play with each child. Song, exercise and strolls around the magnificent 40-acre campus make every day special.

Caring for Wobblers and Toddlers

As babies grow into wobblers and toddlers, they are introduced to a more structured day with stimulating activities, group interaction and the chance to explore. Our open-plan classroom format enables children to initiate their own activities and take responsibilities for completing them.

The daily schedule emphasizes smooth transitions between active and quiet play, individual and group activities, eating and sleeping.
