SDJA Welcomes Comedian Yisrael Campbell On May 23!

To celebrate its 30th anniversary, San Diego Jewish Academy will be hosting An Evening of Comedy, featuring a performance by international comedian Yisrael Campbell.

San Diego, CA – May 6, 2010 – On Sunday, May 23rd, San Diego Jewish Academy (SDJA) will celebrate its 30th anniversary with An Evening of Comedy featuring a performance by comedian Yisrael Campbell fresh from his hit off-Broadway show, Circumcise Me. All proceeds from the event benefit the Every Child Campaign, which helps SDJA provide its students with exceptional faculty, outstanding programs and tuition assistance.

During its 30 year journey, SDJA has impacted the Jewish community in a variety of ways, but with this event, the school hopes to make the community laugh. Yisrael Campbell’s journey to Judaism is a humorous and unique tale that he details in his show, Circumcise Me.

Born Christopher Campbell and raised Irish Catholic, he later moved to Jerusalem, converted to Orthodox Judaism and changed his name to “Yisrael.” Campbell is known for his humorous social commentary and attracts fans from around the world. “These Payos are just the beginning of a comb-over,” joked Campbell in his show.

An Evening of Comedy is open to the public and will be held in the SDJA gym. Tickets start at $100 and discounts are available for multiple tickets. The evening will also feature an elaborate dessert bar and a mini-auction featuring a Chargers’ jersey signed by Drew Brees.

To purchase tickets for An Evening of Comedy or for more information, visit www.supportsdja.com or contact Deena Libman at 858-704-3712 or dlibman@sdja.com.

About SDJA:

San Diego Jewish Academy, one of the country’s premier K-12 Jewish day schools, challenges students to achieve their full academic potential and become individuals of strong moral and ethical character, while inspiring them to make Judaism a vital and relevant aspect of their lives.
